

Frank Brandhoff, Dr. med. works at the epilepsy center Kleinwachau with a focus on ketogenic diet therapies in adults, adult epileptology and neurological therapy with botulinum toxin. He completed his training in Neurology at the Universities of Münster, Leipzig and Dresden. He holds the EEG certificate from the German Society for Clinical Neurophysiology, the Epileptology plus certificate from the German Society for Epileptology, the additional qualification in medical quality management and the qualification for traffic medical assessment.